

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS- 114

COLLECTION TITLE: 'What V-E Day Means to Me' Essay Collection

DATES: May 10, 1945

SIZE: 1 (one) folder

DONOR: Dorothy Bridgman Hawkins DeShazo, 5/28/2008

PROCESSED: Processed 09/10/2014 by K. Craun and R. Wright

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Dorothy V. Hawkins attended Madison College and was student teaching in 7th grade at Harrisonburg High School in 1945. There had been much excitement over the announcement of the end of the war in Europe. Many of the student's fathers were in the service and everybody had something to say. The students wrote essays on "What V-E Day Means to Me".

SCOPE AND CONTENT: This collection contains 21 essays written by 7th grade students at Harrisonburg High School on May 10, 1945.

COLLECTION INVENTORY:

21 student essays on "What V-E Day Means to Me"