

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS-159

COLLECTION TITLE: Harrisonburg/Rockingham County Connector Road Collection

DATES: 1995 - 2002

SIZE: 2 folders

DONOR: Dan Stickley, Jr.

PROCESSED: Processed August 18, 2015

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

In the mid 1990's the Harrisonburg/Rockingham County connector road was proposed to help alleviate traffic congestion in and around Harrisonburg. This road has gone by many names such as the Loop Road, Bypass, Beltway, and Southeast Bypass. The construction of this connector road was very controversial as it ran through neighborhoods and farm land.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection has correspondence and studies relating to the connector road located in Rockingham County.

COLLECTION INVENTORY:

Folder 1:

Correspondence relating to the Harrisonburg/Rockingham County Connector Road, including minutes of The Board of Supervisors, transportation studies, individual oral comments, and newspaper articles

Folder 2:

Maps showing the location of the proposed connector road
CD titled "Rockingham County Draft 2020 Comprehensive Plan, dated October 1, 2002