

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS-168

COLLECTION TITLE: John G. Toepper Diary Collection

DATES: 1900 - 1917

SIZE: 2 folders

DONOR: Unknown

PROCESSED: Processed October 26, 2015 by K. Craun

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

This collection consists of four beautifully written diaries by John G. Toepper. Mr. Toepper and his wife lived at 429 G Street, NW in Washington DC and appeared to have family in the Shenandoah Valley. His diaries not only have detailed descriptions of his daily life, they also include his household expense accounts, rents collected, lists of family members and addresses of friends and family. Addresses are found for family and friends in Dayton, Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Page County, New Market, and Luray, VA.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection consists of four small diaries with leather covers written by John G. Toepper.

COLLECTION INVENTORY:

Folder 1: 1900 diary and 1901 diary

Folder 2: 1914 diary and 1917 diary