

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS-60

COLLECTION TITLE: P. Bradley & Sons Collection

DATES: 1867 - 1955

SIZE: 1 folder

DONOR: Jeremy Driver for P. Bradley & Sons

PROCESSED: Processed August 16, 2016 by K. Craun

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Philo Bradley established an iron foundry in Harrisonburg, Virginia in 1853 called P. Bradley & Co. His son, Schuyler Bradley entered the foundry business with his father and was made president in 1918 of the renamed P. Bradley & Sons.

Under Schuyler Bradley's direction, the company became one of the leading foundries in the country and the Bradley Plow Point, one of the principal products manufactured by the firm, became known throughout the country.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection contains copies of photographs of the early days of P. Bradley & Sons.

COLLECTION INVENTORY:

Folder 1: Copies of photographs of the early years of P. Bradley & Sons iron foundry